

SPECIFICATION AMENDMENTS:

The specification is amended to correct several drawing designations and to include omitted subject matter. Marked up specification pages are attached at Appendix A. Clean specification pages are attached at Appendix B.

The omitted specification text is underlined in the specification pages attached at Appendix A. The underlined matter is not new matter because it was part of the application filed with the Great Britain Receiving Office. The text is missing from the published PCT application as a result of an apparent printing error.